

RA-MOLOPO

GAME LODGE

Welcome
to South Africa

Ra-Molopo is the ideal Bushveld destination for the ultimate 2010 FIFA World Cup™ experience!

*Ra-Molopo: embracing some 2 000 acres of pristine bushveld, is positioned on the edge of
an escarpment;
affording guests panoramic
views of the wide open expanses fringed by the high rises of the picturesque Waterberg in the distance.*

Ra-Molopo, the ideal destination

By choosing Ra-Molopo as your travel base for the 2010 FIFA World Cup™, you would taste the best of both worlds - the ultimate Bushveld experience combined with the thrill of 2010 FIFA World Cup™ action in the nearby cities.

We enhance your visit with fun themed events, parties and celebrations at the restaurant and bar, which serve as the main hub. Here one could also follow the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ matches that are not attended in person.

Choice Accommodation

Ra-Molopo boasts a wide range of accommodation options from the very upmarket Chapman's Peak lodge to the more rustic bush camp. What sets us apart though, is the fact that we accommodate up to 110 guests.

All accommodation is fully equipped for self catering, although we recommend that you treat yourself to some traditional South African delicacies at the restaurant.

The two lodges and bush camp sport their own private splash pools, while the chalet guests can enjoy the rock pool and deck area at the restaurant.

- Conference facility

With a vast array of activities at and around Ra-Molopo, you can rest assured that your South African experience will be a superb one! We will create an adventure filled itinerary to suit your specific requirements and can assist in all travel and booking arrangements when required.

Fine dining, African style

Imagine enjoying your breakfast in the shade of a stately Marula tree or fine dining under the canopy-like branches of an ancient Wild Fig tree . . .

Apart from the unique outdoor settings, meals are served in the restaurant at the main complex, seating up to 110 people for a lavish buffet or a la carte style dining. On sunny days we expand the dining area onto the deck, and evenings are often spent relaxing around the campfire after dinner.

Adventure in abundance!

Ra-Molopo is home to a variety of game such as giraffe, eland, kudu, waterbuck, zebra and a variety of other antelope and predators like leopard. The prolific bird life will occupy the bird enthusiast for hours on end. Enjoy this plentitude of wildlife on guided hikes, mountain bikes, from various lookout points or on game drives.

Guests can also enjoy fresh water fishing from one of the large dams or simply relax at the poolside with a favourite book.

Other activities in close proximity

- Big Five game reserves
- World class golf courses
- 5 star day spa's
- Sun City Resort and casino
- Arts, crafts & curios
- Cultural and eco tours

Hunting

Ra-Molopo is located in the Limpopo province, the hunting mecca of South Africa. Why not combine your 2010 FIFA World Cup™ experience with a true African hunting safari? Furthermore, the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ takes place at the height of South Africa's hunting season, so be sure to take advantage of this opportunity.

Conferencing & Communication

If you are using the 2010 FIFA World Cup™ as a platform for a corporate breakaway or conference, Ra-Molopo is the ideal venue to springboard it from. Our conference room seats up to 70 delegates and full multi-media facilities are at your disposal.

Telephone, internet and facsimile services are available, ensuring that you will stay in touch during your visit to South Africa.

Conveniently located

We are positioned within a 250km radius from four main 2010 FIFA World Cup™ centres: Johannesburg, Pretoria, Rustenburg and Polokwane, where a total of 31 matches would be played at 5 stadiums.
